

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

NOT GUILTY, SAY RELATIVES

A brother and sister of Michael Vencio, 25, arrived in Winnipeg convinced "Mike" is innocent in the sex slayings of two 13-year-old Winnipeg boys last year. Vencio will likely appear for preliminary hearing in about three weeks on charges of shooting Roy McGregor and the identical killing of George Smith. For the first time in police history, army mine detectors were used to locate the spent shells and the slugs which tore the life out of the two child victims. Police have their case on the ballistics report that those bullets came from a gun Mike Vencio had when arrested in Port Arthur after an armed hold-up.

INMATES JOIN FIREMEN FIGHTING REFORMATORY BLAZE—Prisoners risked their lives to rescue 10 horses when fire completely gutted main stables at Ontario reformatory near Guelph. Entire hay crop was lost and Guelph firemen joined inmates battling the blaze, pictured here, for more than three hours.

QUINTS MARK 4TH BIRTHDAY

Nine years younger than Canada's famous quintuplets, the Diguetti quint of Buenos Aires, Argentina, celebrated their fourth birthday in their luxurious home. Shown on the front steps from top to bottom, they are: Franco Jr., Carlos Alberto, Maria Esther, Maria Cristina and Maria Fernanda.

YEAR AFTER, BIKINI SHIPS ARE STILL "HOT"—Year after the atomic bomb was exploded ships have to be checked for radioactivity. Bikini ships are still labelled "hot" by U.S. experts and 12 of them are under observation in navy yards. Here workers cross boundary line after a thorough scrubbing.

FLIES TO BRITAIN TO BRING BACK ADOPTED SON—Life in Canada is the future in store for the wee lad, aged two, shown with his new daddy, William Hocking, South Porcupine, upon arrival by plane from Britain. The boy, Peter, has been adopted by the Hockings. Trying for a year to have Peter escorted to Canada, Mr. Hocking finally went over himself by plane. Mrs. Hocking greeted new son at Dorval.

YEMEN'S ROYALTY—Son of the King of Yemen, Prince Seif Al Islam Abdullah arrives at LaGuardia Field, N.Y., by plane from Cairo. The royal visitor is in the United States at the invitation of the government and hopes to establish trade relations between Yemen and U.S.

FAWN IS CHILD'S PLAYMATE—Playmate any child would covet is this fawn, being fed by Carol O'Neil, of Dundash, Ont. The fleet little fellow shows no fear of Carol or of her dog, and the three romp together.

VAL FOR DENTIST FULLS TEETH ON FLY—In a few weeks backwoodsmen, trappers, miners and other isolated persons in northeastern Quebec won't have to go to the dentist. He'll be coming to them. Dr. Nicolas Gouffard, veteran of two wars, and his pilot son, Peter Gouffard, 20, skinned over Hamilton bay in their "flying dental clinic" for Montreal, on route to Val d'Or. Peter, who received his license a year ago, spent 10 hours learning to fly with teeth before flying his father back to his practice. "I have a good practice in Val d'Or," said the former Canadian Dental Corps major, "but a lot of people can't get to see a dentist and I'm going to look after them." On the door below the dental emblem is lettered: "Flying Dentist, Val d'Or, Dr. N. Gouffard."

NO MORE CHAIN GANGS—Georgia state highway prison camps were abolished in an order disclosing a new investigation into the July 11 riot at the Glynn county camp where eight Negroes were killed by prison guards. The board's decision to close the state's two remaining camps came after a hearing at which Sam Levine, a member of the Glynn county board of commissioners branded the slayings as "murder."

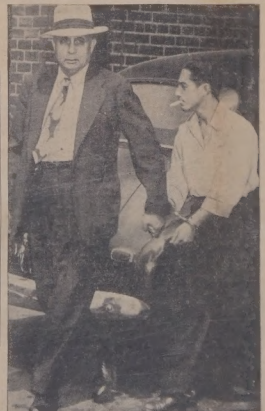

BATHING DURING WORKING HOURS—It's all in the life of a policeman. When a stolen car was driven into the Don river at Toronto, police mechanic Robert Pearce had to dive into the river, fasten a chain to the bumper and haul the car out. It was cool, anyway.

WRECKED TRAIN SAVED IN HALF—Work of clearing the wreckage ended at Kingston, Ont. station when the locomotive of the International Limited hit the trucks in proceeding smoothly and efficiently. Workmen are shown here measuring off the distance of the engine before cutting in half.

'Hairpin turn' elimination has been asked by Kingston citizens following wreck that led to death of engineer and fireman. Murphy showed men died of suffocation and scalds. Master cranes are shown lifting undamaged pullman car to siding.

ESCAPED, CAUGHT, ESCAPED, CAUGHT—Joao Amodeo, (right), escaped from police on the way from North Bay to Toronto, only to be caught while entering a Toronto home. The home-owner, Ronald Purves, overpowered Amodeo, started to lead him to a police station but had to catch him again when Amodeo broke loose and headed down a street.

POLICE AND VOLUNTEERS DO DUTY OF STRIKING TORONTO LIFEGUARDS—Due to strike of lifeguards on Toronto beaches, police and volunteers helped maintain safety record. Here Constable L. C. MacIver, (left), only policeman at Centre Island, cautions Bantro, 16½ years. Lifeguards say they will return to work at once if demands are met and more harbor commission for "calm" attitude toward human life. Centre Island beach, (right), was jammed despite absence of protection. Several near-drownings were reported.

